JOHN M. IMRIE,

Manager.

A. R. ALLOWAY,

Assistant Manager.

Dr. R. A. Falconer,
Gordon Bay,
Muskoka, Ont.

Dear Sir:

Dr. Talcott Williams, Director and Professor of Journalism, Columbia University, New York City, has accepted the invitation of this Association to address its 57th Annual Meeting, which is to be held on Thursday and Friday, September 2 and 3, in the Board of Trade Rooms, Royal Bank Building, Toronto. It is expected Dr. Williams, in his address before the General Association, will tell of the work that is being accomplished by the School of Journalism of which he is the Director.

When it was known/definitely that Dr. Williams would be present at our Annual Meeting the suggestion was made by our Manager, Mr. John M. Imrie, that provision should be made on the programme for a symposium on the desirability of establishing a School of Journalism in connection with one or more of our Canadian Universities, following Dr. Williams' address before the General Association at the afternoon session on Friday, September 3. After consultation with Mr. J. F. MacKay of the Toronto "Globe", who is a Past President of this Association and now a member of the Advisory Committee, and with others who are responsible for the programme arrangements, I was authorized to extend to you a cordial invitation to introduce the symposium on the subject mentioned. Sir John S. Willison, Mr. J. E. Atkinson, Dr. J. A. MacDonald, Mr. P. D. Ross, of the Ottawa "Journal", and other prominent Canadian journalists, will be asked to participate in the symposium.

I sincerely hope that you will see your way clear to be present and give the Meeting the benefit of your valuable opinion and suggestions in this important matter. It would be greatly appreciated if you will kindly let me hear from you at your early convenience as it is desired to have the programme arrangements completed within the next week or ten days.

Yours faithfully,

A. R. Alloway
Assistant Manager.

57TH ANNUAL MEETING WILL BE HELD IN TORONTO ON SEPTEMBER 2 AND 3, 1915.

September 20th, 1915,

A. R. Alloway, Esq.,

Canadian Press Association.

Dear Mr. Alloway:

Many thanks for the copy of the resolution including my name passed at the recent annual meeting of the Canadian Press Association. I enjoyed speaking to the Press Association very much.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
